Notes referring to specific paragraphs

1. Definitions

You should first decide on the contents of the document, then return to check what definitions are needed and whether they really

The definition relating to the subject matter of the agreement requires particular care on your part. The better you can define it,

As for words chosen - that is for you. We have used "Creative Spark" for the contractor. You can change to some derivation of their real name or use a legal , " " " ".

By all means use the search/replace function in your word processor to change them. However, if you do change the defined word, make sure

You should first decide on the contents of the document, then return to check what definitions are needed and whether they really

2. Interpretation

Leave these items in place unless there is a good reason to edit or remove. Each of these items has been carefully considered

3. Relationship of parties

We have no comment

4. Work under this contract

Sets up basic procedure. Edit freely.

5. New IP

New IP is a defined term. This is a most important provision, particularly if you are dealing with a contractor based abroad. International law on who owns newly created intellectual property is complicate and muddled. Copyright law in most jurisdictions assumes

6. Payment

This is a suitable system. We have no

7. Confidential Information

A full provision to cover this important subject.
