Explanatory notes:

Horse sale agreement: buyer's version

General notes

1. This agreement is designed to cover both low and high value transactions. What may be suitable for an animal worth $50,000 may be excessive for one worth $500. There are no governmental regulations with which you need to
2. Remember to use the
3. Transactions with horses and ponies tend to be badly recorded and frequently result in litigation as a result. You are
4. We advise that a Buyer sends a copy of this agreement to the Seller in advance of the sale, so as to avoid any dispute

Paragraph specific notes

Notes referring to specific numbered paragraphs

- 3 The agreement is designed on the assumption that the Buyer pays cash
- 4 The warranties favour the Buyer. The way to deal with warranties is not for any to be deleted, but rather for them “ ”
