Explanatory Notes:

Website terms and conditions template: marketplace for goods; buyer side

General notes

These notes apply to most terms and conditions documents, but not all notes

1. What does a T&C document do?

A terms and conditions document serves two prime purposes: first, it sets out the terms under which you have agreed to accept business. Everyone can see the details of the contract between you and your contract party can decide whether or not to enter into a contract on these terms. Secondly, the document affirms the legal rights of the parties, so that either can sue the other in court for a

2. In my T&C or on ?

A T&C document should provide a legal framework. It should be all-inclusive of the structure of the contract but need not include detail which may change from time to time, such as prices,

3. Make sure it bites

It is essential that terms and conditions are incorporated into the contract. If they are not drawn to the buyer's attention until after the contract has effectively been made, then they do not form part of the contract and the buyer is not bound by them. There is another issue here. To obtain the best benefit from the terms, you should seek to bind people who are merely site visitors as well as actual buyers. Whether you can do this depends on whether you are able to ask for confirmation of acceptance of the T & C at an early stage of a visit to your site. If you are not able to do so

So far as any visitor, user, or buyer of your services is concerned, it is therefore important that the Website ordering system is such that the buyer has to take some positive step to confirm that he has read the terms and conditions. If the usual device of a check box is used, it is important that it is not “pre-ticked”. It is essential that references

“I have read and understood [your name]’s terms and conditions, and I agree that they form part of the contract between us. If I am under the age of 18 years, I confirm that I have brought the terms and conditions to the notice

Better still, the preferred acceptance device is one which compels the buyer to go to a page containing the terms and conditions, and where the confirmation of acceptance is on

Unless your business model requires sales to children, it is best specifically to 18 .

Remember that if a customer comes to you otherwise than via your website, you must find some other way of obtaining his agreement to this document. By far the best way is by a signature. That means you will need a second version of this document which provides at the top for the buyer to be named and at the end for both parties to sign. If your buyer has not

4. If this is a contract, why are the ?

It is not necessary for your customer to be identified by name. “You” is enough. However, you do have to be accurately identified. A website name is not enough. You must clearly state the real name of you or your company, trading address and names

5. Can I just close the line spacing and put it all 8 ?

Small print - we do not advocate small print or close type. The whole thrust of the Consumer Protection Act 1986, the Information Technology Act, 2000 and the Monopolies and Restrictive Trade Practices Act 1969 is towards transparency. In any dispute,

Paragraph Specific Notes:

The drafting notes, using the document :

1. Definitions

We know nothing about your business, so we cannot provide you with defined terms which precisely describe what you sell. Most people do not read your terms (even if they have to “tick the box”). The people who do take the trouble to read them are likely to be the sort of people who expect the same attention to detail from you as they themselves give to their purchase of your goods or services. It therefore helps you to obtain their business if your terms are accurate and friendly. In particular, we advise you to change the words “Goods”

You should first decide on the contents of the document, then return to check
